Hello – here are construction-related updates for the week of January 22nd that may impact you and your office:

- This evening, Friday January 19th, the West lobby doors will be locked and access will remain unavailable until early April (the East/San Jacinto entrance will remain open)
- Carpet will be installed in the first floor loading dock corridor to reduce noise and dust anticipated during construction
- Forthright can be accessed through their exterior patio door, or through their interior entry door at the rear of the restaurant (near the first floor restrooms - follow the arrow signs)
- ADA parking will be located on garage levels G2 and G3 until early April

Please let us know if you have any questions or need further clarifications on these closures. Your continued patience and cooperation is greatly appreciated.
